

I strongly oppose allowing greater ownership of our media than the current level of 35%. Our democracy is endangered when we only hear a limited number of voices. The press must be kept competitive.